Description: Tudor House is Southampton's most important historic building, revealing over 800 years of history in one fascinating location. The house was built in the late 15th Century, with King John's Palace, an adjacent Norman house accessible from Tudor House Garden, dating back a further 300 years. Visiting the house will support the student's study of the Tudor period and medieval history by allowing them to place themselves in this exciting period of history.

Final decision regarding the students travelling will be made by the Senior Leadership Team and Head of Achievement. They will continue to monitor behaviour records, punctuality and effort, in order to ensure that our offer is fair for all students. Students selected will be expected to maintain a high standard of behaviour; failure to do so may put their place in jeopardy.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me on the email address below.

Mrs A Ellis
